Things Keep Changin'

Chilliwack

Every day gets a little longer
Every day gets a little stronger
And it don't seem to matter if you sit around
Things keep changing upside down

Oh yeah, it's gonna get you
You can lay down your last dime
Sooner or later
It's just a matter of time

Every day you get a little shyer
Every day you get a little higher
And it don't seem to matter if you scream or shout
Things keep changing, there's no way out

And you know it's gonna get you
You can lay down your last dime
Well sooner or later
Oh well, it's just a matter of time

Every day you get a little higher
Every day you get a little shyer
And it don't seem to matter if you scream or shout
Things keep changing, there's no way out, oh yeah
Well things keep changing and there's no way out
