Red Letter Day

China Crisis

Sadder than mad in your company all that we had is never enough laugh at the blues but the blues get a hold on me and that's sad sadder than mad

Wanted to be a part of the family wanted to know when I was at home laugh at the fool but the fool takes effect on me and that's sad sadder than mad and that's sad sadder than mad

Trouble in mind when I think of you all I find is never enough
I want to talk and talk
but we don't know how
and that's sad
sadder than mad

I see a treasure isle in front of me
I see a sly smile of contempt
I want to talk and talk
but we make no sense
and that's sad
sadder than mad
and that's sad
sadder than mad

Red letter day and you and I, we're the same enlighten my soul could you enlighten my soul and I'm not perfect I know

I'm going to take some time
make somebody happy
somebody special

What of the world you think so little of what of the way you need to be right all of your days and nights so all alone and that's sad sadder than mad

Is there a compromise we haven't made show me a side I've never seen all of your days and nights so lonesome and that's sad sadder than mad and that's sad sadder than mad

Red letter day and you and I, we're the same enlighten my soul could you enlighten my soul and I'm not perfect I know

make somebody happy
somebody special

I let the world play on my sympathy come on and take whatever you need laugh at the blues but the blues keep affecting me and that's sad sadder than mad
