

Nothing To Talk About

Chinawoman

You to whom
I once ran barefoot through the snow
In a crowd I was blind to all
But you

How we left
All our family and friends behind
For each other but now we find
Nothing to talk about

Nothing to talk about
Nothing to talk about
The one you couldn't live without
Nothing to talk about

We change
We stay the same
We change
We stay the same

How your face
Came to represent all I craved
Gave the nameless at last its name
Now a lifetime away

How we left
All our family and friends behind
For each other but now we find
Nothing to talk about

Nothing to talk about
Nothing to talk about
The one you couldn't live without
Nothing to talk about

We change
We stay the same
We change
We stay the same

Je me souviens de ton regard étincelant
En route pour notre nouvelle vie
Alors qu'ensemble, seules au monde
Nous n'avions plus besoin des autres
