Chinchilla

(Hey, hey, hey, hey)

Hey, come on, whatchu say?
I'm a big bad bird and I need the prey
Say everything you crave
Mumblin' a word through the fear and self-restraint
You got BDE?
Well I went all in, and I raised you me
So speak, I'll stand my ground
When you knock me, knock me down, down

And you're tryin' to be heartless but, you see
It's just another way to compliment me

We should all aspire to be bitches
Get up and go while I count my riches
We should all aspire to be bitches
Resting bitch face, so delicious
We should all aspire to be bitches
Get up and go while I count my riches
We should all aspire to be bitches
Resting bitch face, so ambitious

So call me bitch
So call me bitch
So call me bitch (what is vanity?)
So call me bitch (what is ugly?)

Hey, I'm a cherry plum
I'm a big, bad wolf and it keeps me young
Come on, I'm a smoking gun
Tattoo my name on the plain tip of your tongue
It's a bitter pill
But the low, low, low is where I excel
And still, I'll stand my ground
When you knock me, knock me down, down

And you're trying to be spineless but, you see
You just found my favourite compliment, b

We should all aspire to be bitches
Get up and go while I count my riches
We should all aspire to be bitches
Resting bitch face, so delicious
We should all aspire to be bitches
Get up and go while I count my riches
We should all aspire to be bitches
Resting bitch face, so ambitious

So call me bitch
So call me bitch
So call me bitch (what is vanity?)
So call me bitch (what is ugly?)

So call me bitch
I'm an oestrogen phenomenon, don
Call me bitch, hey

I'm a bitch, hey
Call me bitch
I deserve it
'Cause I'm ruthless and I'm perfect
Call me bitch, hey
I'm a bitch, hey

We should all aspire to be bitches
I'm a bitch, hey
We should all aspire to be bitches
I'm a bitch, hey
So call me bitch

Vanity, what is vanity, really?
Ugly, what is ugly, really?
So call me bitch
