

Broken Heart

Chinchilla

I don't know where I run to
I only know that you run from me
I don't know where to turn to
I always thought that you belonged to me
I saw your face in every marvelous cloud
I hear your voice in every lovely sound
I feel your touch it's so heavenly
My heart starts beating for my lonely
Destiny, destiny
You broke my heart into pieces
Since the time you've walked away
I hope I'll never get these feelings
For you and me Oh, it's only a dream
It seems to be the end of it all
The lovely dreams for you and me are cold
No place for hearted heat, there's a wall
My perfect world destroyed,
Oh god I'm falling, Oh god I'm falling
