Can't Blame Me

Chingy

Wanna blame me
It's cool 'cause you ain't said shit
You can't blame me
When rich niggas don't want you to get rich
Wanna blame me
I'm good, just stay up out my mix
You can't blame me
For holdin' it down, keeping shit lit

Wanna blame me
It's cool 'cause you ain't said shit
You can't blame me
When rich niggas don't want you to get rich
Wanna blame me
I'm good, just stay up out my mix
You can't blame me
For holdin' it down, keeping shit lit

Money got real, people got fake
Trials became mistakes that I had to tribulate, wait
But fans can't patience wearing thin
Outed by outlookers on the outside looking in Sum in my city ticked off, I don't compare to them like
Ain't enough air to spare, somehow they hate to share the win
Jokers grin, ear to ear
Laughing how love never outweighs the smell of fear
In my darkest days they couldn't see me in light years
An being, right there's the reason I'm still right here
Hold on, 50 mill later minus the rumors and haters
Bunch industry phonies owe me sum real favors
And I'm coming

Wanna blame me
It's cool 'cause you ain't said shit
You can't blame me
When rich niggas don't want you to get rich
Wanna blame me
I'm good, just stay up out my mix
You can't blame me
For holdin' it down, keeping shit lit

Wanna blame me
It's cool 'cause you ain't said shit
You can't blame me
When rich niggas don't want you to get rich
Wanna blame me
I'm good, just stay up out my mix
You can't blame me
For holdin' it down, keeping shit lit

Lost a deal do to shit that I didn't even do
Kept it real but they said that I wasn't being true
But yet and still never stagnant, always making moves
Fuck your respect, fuck you and fuck your rules
I don't snooze, what is sleep
Except me rejuvenating where me and wisdom meet
They question my street cred like well shit is he G

We all got thug in us Lil Durty but I'm just C
And that don't mean Chingy, my nigga, that's Christ mind
We'll pay attention since you still in your price mind, woah
Record label saver, though I'm on my own now
Living legend worldwide, hero in my home town
God damn

Wanna blame me
It's cool 'cause you ain't said shit
You can't blame me
When rich niggas don't want you to get rich
Wanna blame me
I'm good, just stay up out my mix
You can't blame me
For holdin' it down, keeping shit lit

Wanna blame me
It's cool 'cause you ain't said shit
You can't blame me
When rich niggas don't want you to get rich
Wanna blame me
I'm good, just stay up out my mix
You can't blame me
For holdin' it down, keeping shit lit
You can't blame me
