A little interval To remind you people I still do what I do Holla at me M Let me go

You talk money I overstand ya
Money is the motive everyday I want my grands up
I weren't the kid in class front row with my hands up
But somehow I still pass
Hit yard and still bar
Commercial incredible I mouth off
Cause I can water down a single for the charts
I'm the one prick, eyes so fly I'm not the one to fuck with
Time is of the essence you boys can't smell it
Chip, so chill with your blunt noses
If you see me, ya cool stop the hard poses
I don't fair posin'
I am not jokin'
I am tryin' to get the bread I don't do loafin'

No lie I'm tryin' stay alive to make a killin' Send it I kill it My features alive A sixteen verse turn your song into mine Chea, throw me an A even Odd thoughts in my brain No I ain't even No I ain't leavin' Better see me dim Still here Pissed off half the game Doin' it for years and ain't got half my name I'm still not the same cause I made the change Cause I spit the good shit and made the change Nigga's say I sold out please I never made an album for the cheese I made an album that represents me (I AM) Besides I do as I please

I don't know what you heard about me
But don't leave your girl around me
You can see I got swag (no lie)
When it comes to word play I'm a dad (father)
Laid back cruise 'round in a cab
But I wear with' money on my hands
And the girls go weak for the tax (they go weak)
