

Talking To

Chipmunk

Zonders, they already know who the realist skengman is
What's wrong with this fucking dickhead, bro?

Who you talking to?
Careful before you get a talking to
Looking at bro like, who is this fool?
End up in a sudden, we are talking through like—
What are you talking about?
End up in a sudden, we are talking it out
Me take check from who, what, how?
Time and place? I'm there — what now?

Like now, rudeboy, why you think now I'm scared?
Fool must think that you're god, but you're weird
Game goes this way, the game goes that way
I'm doing all right in this musical chairs
Hey, rudeboy, how you waste this year?
Fuck all the bars — what you make this year?
Better than who? Come on, make it fair
You wanna take it there? We can take it there

If grime was a team with a starting eleven
There's not one position you'd play this year
Them boy there can't speak in bars—
Say you got a gun, you better beat it, dawg

Hey, rudeboy, you're not known in your ends
You're not known for your line, you're not known for your skeng
You ain't even good with the gs in your ends
Chatting like say you're some g in your ends

Who you talking to?
Careful before you get a talking to
Looking at bro like, who is this fool?
End up in a sudden, we are talking through like—
What are you talking about?
End up in a sudden, we are talking it out
Me take check from who, what, how?
Time and place? I'm there — what now? Like—

Hey, rudeboy, who you talking to?
I'll put my arm around man and then walk you through
Get in man's ear like "You sure it's you" that you yeah?
'Kay, looking at me like, "Floor this yout'?"
I will aim at man and then torch this tune
Brother, you ain't like that when man walking through
You dis ma road — there's no talking for you
Ching den ying man that's what I'm talking 'bout

Man can't run out of bars
I went west with leander, heard man was inside—
Man can't come out to dance
Fuck a '16, man, I'll rub out your clart

Brother, you talking to?
Yeah, like man 'cause you're cool with the goons?
When I talk wickedness all of it's true

So I don't wanna link up forcing a tune
