

Daisies

Chloe Ament

Shut your eyes slow and welcome the dark
When morning comes I'll be right here
They took your light but they can't take your heart
Hush as the mist draws near

Don't pay no mind to the red on my hands
The river will wash them in time
The daisies I weave as a crown for your head
Will blossom as long you're mine

(Ooh, ooh)
Blossom as long you're mine
(Ooh, ooh)
Blossom as long you're mine

The trees and the wind they whisper "goodbye"
And the valleys, they echo your name
I'll carry on, oh, I'll fight until dawn
Without you it won't be the same

(Ooh, ooh)
Without you it won't be the same
(Ooh, ooh)
Without you it won't be the same

Goodbye
Goodbye
Goodbye

(Ooh, ooh)
Without you it won't be the same
(Ooh, ooh)
Without you it won't be the same

Fall into sleep with this song in your head
There will be no tears tonight
When I see the daisies, they'll remind me of you
They'll blossom as long as you're mine
