

Perfume

Chloe Ament

Blink and you'll miss it
She only occurs maybe once every century
Blink you'll regret it
I'm warning you now
Keep your guard up, you'll thank me

Her ledger is stained with red on her hands
Trauma avoided the lethal demand
Her aura is warm but her essence is killer
Sweet on the outside
The inside is bitter

Poison in her perfume
Never let her get you
Poison in her perfume
Never let her get you

A magnetic force she'll
Reel you in with a pull that could rival the moon
'Cause she's got her own gravity
Just give it a minute and watch what she'll do

When the powerful men with their powerful swords
Try to destroy her with powerful words
They'll run to the law to call for her arrest
Then call for the mothers
No I can attest
(She's got)

Poison in her perfume
Never let her get you
Angel eyes gone dark with doom
Don't you ever let her get you

Don't scream
Don't hide beneath your sheets
You know you can't deceive
The one who haunts your dreams
You should come clean
Confess all that you hide
To the tale as old as time
When the beauty is the beast
You shouldn't scream

Don't hide beneath your sheets
You know you can't deceive
The one who haunts your dreams
You should come clean

Poison in her perfume
Never let her get you
Angel eyes gone dark with doom
