

Uninvited

Chloe Ament

Man, you let me down
Ditched me on my eighteenth birthday
Never wanted me around
Till I went ahead and planned my first date

With the guy you swore you hated
Turns out you're the worst and he's great and
I'm friends with all his friends

Pack your things and go
Don't hit up my phone
Keep your "sorrys" to yourself
And from now on just know you're
Uninvited

Wish that you would try
Giving me the space I asked for
Know that it's a lie
If I forgive you in the future

I don't care to see you cry
We both know the fault ain't mine

Pack your things and go
Don't hit up my phone
Keep your "sorrys" to yourself
And from now on just know
You had too much pride
The cause of our demise
Made me crack under the stress
Of feeding all your lies you're
Uninvited

I don't hate you
Just don't know you
Wish you'd leave me alone
I don't hate you
Just don't know you
Wish you'd leave me alone

Pack your things and go (I don't hate you)
Don't hit up my phone (Just don't know you)
Keep your "sorrys" to yourself (Wish you'd leave me alone)
And from now on just know
You had too much pride (I don't hate you)
The cause of our demise (Just don't know you)
Made me crack under the stress (Wish you'd leave me alone)
Of feeding all your lies you're
Uninvited
