

7seas

chloe moriondo

Floating around in my mind
You seem to sound like the perfect solution
When I am unfathomably high
And that doesn't happen the way that it used to
I sip, drink, breathe, sink
And fall back into you like I always do
And I can't ever think
I always answer you like I always do

I can't help the way that I feel about you
And I can't seem to find a way to make it stop
I can't tell if you think of it like I do
And every time you call me, I'm unlocked

What did you do to me?
I thought that I was free
You brought me to my knees
I've sailed the seven seas to find somebody like you
Somebody like you
What did you do to me?
Now there's no one else I see
You've caught me by my teeth
I've sailed the seven seas to find somebody like you
Somebody like you, somebody like you

(Somebody like you, somebody like you)
(Somebody like you, somebody like you)

And I know it's moving too fast
But I don't control the current, I can't know if this will last
And I think I'm too afraid to ask you
But I want to, do you want to?

I can't help the way that I feel about you ('Bout you)
And I can't seem to find a way to make it stop
I can't tell if you think of it like I do (Like I do)
And every time you call me, I'm unlocked

What did you do to me?
I thought that I was free
You brought me to my knees
I've sailed the seven seas to find somebody like you
Somebody like you
What did you do to me?
Now there's no one else I see
You've caught me by my teeth
I've sailed the seven seas to find somebody like you
Somebody like you, somebody like you