

Sammy

chloe moriondo

Okay, fuck, I love this song

There's a boy I know
In the morning, catch him moving slow
So many places that he wants to go
But doesn't know where he's going

He's a character
On a mission and he'll win for sure
Right behind me everywhere I turn
He's just got this way of knowing

Oh Sammy, Sammy
Your lil' face is sweet as candy, candy
Could have the hearts of so many, many
But I'm so glad that you're mine

We take a walk outside
He loves to go out in the summertime
And in between he never leaves my side
He really likes eating carrots
(He thinks they're cookies, dude)

Oh Sammy, Sammy
Your lil' face is sweet as candy, candy
Could have the hearts of so many, many
But I'm so glad that you're mine
Oh Sammy, Sammy
Curl up in every nook and cranny, cranny
Could have the hearts of so many, many
But I'm so glad that you're mine

All bark and no bite
Make up when we fight
When you're with me, you'll be alright
I'm with you your whole dog life

All bark and no bite
Make up when we fight
When you're with me, you'll be alright
I'm with you your whole dog life

Oh Sammy, Sammy
Your lil' face is sweet as candy, candy
Could have the hearts of so many, many
But I'm so glad that you're mine
Oh Sammy, Sammy
Curl up in every nook and cranny, cranny
Could have the hearts of so many, many
But I'm glad that you're mine
