

sinking

chloe moriondo

Moving forward isn't as bad as it seems
You're in-between a space I forget and remember
Then I'm half asleep
I feel more free now, I'm without you
You know how some things still remind you of everything
Push through it anyways
Push through it anyways
It's a long road and I know it'll feel slow
This is how it goes, it's a lake that froze
But the sun's so close

(You know how some things still remind you of everything)
(Some things still remind you of everything)
(Some things still remind you of every-everything)

You and me could probably use some closure
You and me used to be so close
Where were you when I needed you most?
I guess I can let you go

I don't know why I still cry for you
I feel I might be sinking lower when I'm wishful thinking
I think I could be just fine, I do
Sometimes, it all just hits me
I know I'm always with me

(Sometimes, it all just hits me)
(Sometimes, it all just)
(Sometimes, it all just hits me)

Y-y-you and me could probably use some closure
You and me used to be so close
Where were you when I needed you most?
I guess I can let you go
