

Slacker

chloe moriondo

I open the door to you, and never close it
You make me feel brand new
And now we are in my room, I hope you know that There's nothing I wouldn't do
Mm-hmm, mm-hmm, hmm

I could if I would
But I guess I'm just a slacker
And maybe it wouldn't be if I could
If it always ends in disaster
So I'm just a slacker
I'm just a slacker

Stars are in your eyes and I now I won't focus
To me it's no surprise
And now I fantasize, of you in hope that
You won't realize

I could if I would
But I guess I'm just a slacker
And maybe it wouldn't be if I could
If it always ends in disaster
So I'm just a slacker
I'm just a slacker

And oh, I know I've been holding this in for so long, ooh
Thinking of you every time I write a song, ooh
And I could if I would
But I guess I'm smart enough
And now all night the rest could
If she circle in my world

I could if I would
But I guess I'm just a slacker
And maybe it wouldn't be if I could
If it always ends in disaster
So I'm just a slacker
I'm just a slacker
