

Temporarily Single

Chlöe

Have I told you I love you?
Have I told you I love you?

Love me all the ways that he couldn't, babe
Touch me in the ways that he can't
I don't think that we doing nothing wrong
'Cause for right now I don't have a man
Temporarily, yeah, I'm single, babe
Single for you, just call my name
The way that we moving is reckless, baby
But you love me way better than he can, oh

When you cross on my mind, I unblock you from my phone
Every other month, a toxic endless cycle
We can try to lie, but neither one is letting go
Hold on, real tight, boy, don't let me go
I know your girl alone, so right now just take me down
You cannot stay away, 'cause with me home is where you found
I'll be your little secret, I won't even make a sound
It's so intoxicating, now let's go another round

'Cause you feel so right for the night you apply, go to work, over time
Oh-oh
You got the key to my body and my mind, love when you say, "That pussy mine"

Love me all the ways that he couldn't, babe
Touch me in the ways that he can't
I don't think that we doing nothing wrong
'Cause for right now I don't have a man
Temporarily, yeah, I'm single, babe
Single for you, just call my name
The way that we moving is reckless, baby
But you love me way better than he can, oh

You say I get so wet, just for you, baby
You know my body cannot lie, I miss you daily
You begging me, "Wait, stop," going crazy
Oh-oh
It been so long, but, baby, you feel so familiar
When you kiss me, everything just gets so clearer
We go together when I watch us in the mirror
You know that I am the one, she just a filler
Oh-oh

'Cause you feel so right for the night you apply, go to work, over time
Oh-oh
You got the key for my body and my mind when you say, "That pussy mine"

Love me all the ways that he couldn't, babe
Touch me in the ways that he can't
I don't think that we doing nothing wrong
'Cause for right now I don't have a man
Temporarily, yeah, I'm single, babe
Single for you, just call my name
The way that we moving is reckless, baby
But you love me way better than he can, oh

No matter where you go
No matter what you say
No matter who you deal with, you're forever my babe
Our love will never go
Our love will always stay
Whenever that you need me, I will travel for the day

No matter where you go
No matter what you say
No matter who you deal with, you're forever my babe
Our love will never go
Our love will always stay
Whenever that you need me

Love me all the ways that he couldn't, babe
Touch me in the ways that he can't
I don't think that we doing nothing wrong
'Cause for right now I don't have a man
Temporarily, yeah, I'm single, babe
Single for you, just call my name

I'll be your wishing well
Tell me what you want
