Fall

Chloe x Halle

Blue likes to drop sometimes, one by one
But I don’t mind, no I don’t mind
Cause luck is on my side
I feel the drip drop, nonstop, pour on tonight

So what if the rain falls?
Let’s find the gold at the end of the rainbow
So what if the rain falls?
I’ll shower in shimmers of gold

Blue likes to drop sometimes, all at once
But I don’t mind, no I don’t mind
Cause luck is on my side
I'm looking at where the man upstairs might live, fall on tonig ht

So what if the sky falls?
We’ll build a life right on the cotton clouds
So what if the sky falls?
We’ll play hide and seek with the stars

Let the rain fall, let the sky fall
Let it all fall
Let the rain fall, let the sky fall
Let it all fall

So what if the rain falls?
Let’s find the gold at the end of the rainbow
So what if the sky falls?
We’ll build a life right on the cotton clouds
