

Forgive Me

Chloe x Halle

Moving too fast, now you're caught in the middle Try so hard to keep up, now you single
Betting you regret what you did, just a little
Ah, ah

Baby, what you think this is
Why you wanna plead the fifth
You ain't gotta tell me what it is
'Cause I saw the messages
You must got me fucked up
You must got me fucked up
I think I had enough

So forgive me
Forgive me
I've been going too hard in your city
So forgive me, 'cause I'm not teary
Best believe I move onto better things
Oh, you lie
Oh, you lie
Give me back all my time
So forgive me
No, not really
Best believe I move onto better things

I've been sitting here watching you go insane
I've been sitting here watching us fade away
Baby, don't you see, what you done threw away
Know it's hitting you, on the loop, on replay

Baby, what you think this is
Why you wanna plead the fifth
You ain't gotta tell me what it is
'Cause I saw the messages
You must got me fucked up
You must got me fucked up
I think I had enough

So forgive me
Forgive me
I've been going too hard in your city
So forgive me, 'cause I'm not teary
Best believe I move onto better things
Oh, you lie
Oh, you lie
Give me back all my time
So forgive me
No, not really
Best believe I move onto better things

Goodbye, you stay wasting time
No, you never tried
You said this for life
But you know you lied
Catch you every time like
Lie, lie
Lie, lie

Lie, lie
Lie, lie
