

I Know You

chokecherry

Feel the way you wanna feel
You look at me with eyes that steal
Well come on over then you'll see that you and I are the same

But I could never understand
How you play so many hands
Well cut me open then you'll see that you and I are the same
Are the same

Was it always my fault?

Cause I know you
I know you
I know you
I know you

Feeling all the ways I feel
I can tell you nothing's real
Standing on the corner with you, oh, and you say
Oh oh

Heavy are the arms that hold you
Heavy are the eyes that gaze
Heavy are the lies I told you
Oh, if you stay
If you stay

Was it all in the moment?

Cause I know you
I know you
I know you
I know you
I know you
I know you
Cause I know you
I know you

There's a hand on my heart in time
It grows
Heavy on my heart
There's a hand on my heart in time
It goes
Heavy on my heart
Heavy on my heart
Heavy on my heart
Heavy on my heart

Cause I know you
I know you

Oh

Well I tried, and it falls down
And it burns inside the way you knew, now

I know you

I know you
I know you
I know you
I know you
I know you
I know you
I know you
