

Does anyone care or are they too busy watching and unlearning
Glued to the TV while the rest of the world is burning
Catching your attention by televising the latest human tragedy
Focusing your energy on the furthest thing from reality
Who knows what goes on while you're hooked to their lies?
As long as the public
As the public isn't looking, do they care who dies?
And they have their ways of keeping you occupied
You can't see what they're trying to hide
Do you trust your government?

Do you trust a higher power?
Do you think the only world happenings
Are what you see in the news each hour?
Why do we know everything about the last day
And neglect the last fifty years?
Would you even question that things don't go on that no one hears?
You're sidetracked by a fictional diversion
Fooled into trusting a murderous monster
Shut it off, stop being so numb to the truth
Shut it off, stop being so numb to the truth
