

Silenced

Chokehold

How did we get here?
Where the victims are shamed and the
Criminals are voted in.
Bravery rewarded with a lifetime of blame
A lifetime of inner fears and doubt
And how can we ask why you kept your silence?
How dare we ask why you kept your silence

Why can't we believe you?
A smear campaign to find the lie
Perpetrators cast as heroes
And we question privilege over truth
I'm sorry they can't believe you
Your rights are on trial
Victims treated like the enemy
We have to kill this culture

Burn down their fucking world
With your truth. And With their lies
Burn down their fucking world
Set fire to their version of the truth
Time to flip the script and make them pay
Flip the script and make the motherfuckers pay
