

Natural blue, crash into moods
Fifth element with a beam like Bruce
Point at the moon, dance in my room
No more cash, pay me in jewels
Pearls kiss the crown, Diana
I am a three-point dagger
Can't coach that comeback, Rudy pack, Lucky Charms only
Kiko Mizuhara how my eyes meet the Sony

Ponyboy, stay gold, stay rosey
I leave when I leave, if you comin' don't slow me
Ain't no loss, ain't no foldin'
Ain't no cost when you spend it on yourself (Ooh-ooh)
Slowly figurin' out I'm never gonna figure this out
Operating on ghost low, like I'm on probro
I don't recall haikus that could help through
My next age is pretty close, if I run out before you
Don't rely on my presence for no comfort
I've been feelin' so much better with my eyes closed
Let my mind hold what my body won't
And let my body hold what my mind won't
I've been ridin' through the city like I own that bitch
I don't own no bitch, be she act as if
Takin' things at face value
I'm just waitin' for the omnipotent hand
Patti caking maybe rub off on me
Make a vision out of mortal man
Tell me stories, tell me all your plans
Make it scenic, tell me where you stand
City comin' into focus as we land, ooh
Same forces grew you gon' kill you
My clock tell more than time
