

Everything

Chris August

There was a space inside my heart
That I left hidden in the dark
I just couldn't bear to show the scars
I tried to keep it and you apart

But that's when you showed me how to heal
Said I should give what I tried to conceal
So I lay down it all so it all is revealed
Here is my heart lord I wanna give you

Everything
Everything
Everything
Wanna give you everything
And more
You deserve
Everything
Everything
Everything
Wanna give you everything
It's yours

I was afraid to have you near
Cause then all my shame would be made too clear
But your perfect love washed away my fear
Now you are here and I wanna give you

Everything
Everything
Everything
Wanna give you everything
And more
You deserve
Everything
Everything
Everything
Wanna give you everything
It's yours

So here is my heart I'm giving it to you
There's no secret keeping
Hidden piece
That's part of me now you see

Everything
Everything
Everything
Wanna give you everything
And more
You deserve
Everything
Everything
Everything
Wanna give you everything
It's yours
All yours

Everything
