

Homeless

Chris Brown

Acid rainfalls clear up out the sky
It feel like every drops running through my heart
Lost the starring role up in your life
Now somebody else gets to play the part

I'm trying, tryna find cover
'Cause the rain is coming down hard
I wanna, wanna come home again, 'gain, 'gain

It's like I'm out here on Skid Row
Destination? I don't know
And without you I just don't know where shelter is
I'm out here fending for myself
I can't feel you no more, lonely and cold
Baby, I'm homeless

Baby, without your love I'm homeless
Baby, I'm homeless
Baby, without your love I'm homeless

Outside looking in and I know why (Know why)
Sitting in this car, trying not to cry
Staring at the place where I call home
Wondering if there's anything left inside

I'm trying, tryna find cover
'Cause the rain is coming down hard
I wanna, wanna come home again, 'gain, 'gain

It's like I'm out here on Skid Row
Destination? I don't know
And without you I just don't know where shelter is
I'm out here fending for myself
I can't feel you no more, lonely and cold
Baby, I'm homeless

All I ever needed was you by my side
I'm out here on these streets, concrete
And it's hard to thrive, nowhere to go
It's like I'm out

It's like I'm out here on Skid Row
Destination? I don't know
And without you I just don't know where shelter is (I'm all alone and I need you, girl)
I'm out here fending for myself
I can't feel you no more, lonely and cold (Cold, cold)
Baby, I'm homeless

Baby, without your love I'm homeless
Baby, I'm homeless (I'm homeless without your love)
Baby, without your love I'm homeless
Baby, I'm homeless
Baby, without your love I'm homeless
Baby, I'm homeless
Baby, without your love I'm homeless
Baby, I'm homeless
