

Lost In Ya Love

Chris Brown

(Can you hear me now?)

Yeah

Sweet like honey dew

I love it when you come around

It's just me and you, girl

And you

Her fragrance turns me on

Her skin's so soft, oh

I just wanna hold you

All night and day

And we got all the time, girl

So come a little closer

Cause I just wanna hold you

All night and day

I'm thinking 'bout you all day, all night

I'm holding on tight

Baby I just can't let you go

I get lost in ya love

I get wrapped in the words you say

I get lost in the love we make

I even fall hard for the games you play

Baby, you're the truth

I wanna talk about your loving

I'm so connected to you

I want it all, I need it all from you girl

You're my only one and you know that

I hold it down cause I own that

Too much history, we go way back

Its so personal and we got that

Run it back, run it back, run it back

Oh, this my favorite song

And shout out to the DJ

Cause he gon' play this record all night long
