Luckiest Man

Chris Brown

Woke up in the middle of you (Oh)
Feels just like the middle of spring
Nothing left to do but a ring
Lada, badaboom, badabing

I hit the lows, yeah, high and low
So hard to fight back, hard to go

Consider me the luckiest man in the world
'Cause you're my girl
Consider me the luckiest man in the world
'Cause you're my girl
I can't believe that you were even single and free (Oh)
Consider me the luckiest man in the world
'Cause you're my girl

Wake up in the middle of you, oh
Feels just like the middle of spring
Lada, badaboom, badabing

I hit the lows, yeah, high and low (And low)
It's so hard to fight back, high and low

Consider me the luckiest man in the world
'Cause you're my girl
Consider me the luckiest man in the world
'Cause you're my girl (Oh, no)
I can't believe that you were even single and free (Free, yeah, oh)
Consider me the luckiest man in the world
'Cause you're my girl
