

Painless

Chris Brown

You're the definition of perfection, quality, satisfaction
I guarantee I'm qualified
For your love, I'm ready, for your love
Wanna take this one heartbeat
For your heart, painless, painless
And all I need is TNT to start this spark
Blow it up, now you're in shock

Girl, you know you got that bomb shit, I want it
Girl, you know I got them explosives
Kissing and touching and freaking and loving your body all night long
That's the way I go, that's the way I go in, go in, in
This is the part when I steal your heart
And never give it back, back, back, back
This is my one chance to show you
That this is where it's at, at, at, at

You're the definition of perfection, quality, satisfaction
I guarantee I'm qualified
For your love, I'm ready, for your love
Wanna take this one heartbeat
For your heart, painless, painless
And all I need is TNT to start this spark
Blow it up, now you're in shock

Girl, you know you're supernova, you're an angel
Brighter and brighter, you're a star, babe
Your halo is your crown
Let your love come down
Higher and higher, baby, don't fly away
Please stay under the clouds

You're the definition of perfection, quality, satisfaction
I guarantee I'm qualified
For your love, I'm ready, for your love
Wanna take this one heartbeat
For your heart, painless, painless
And all I need is TNT, to start this spark
Blow it up, now you're in shock
