Possessive

Chris Brown

When you love someone
You can feel it in your bones
Try to do what he ever did
Set the tone
I remember we was at war when I slept alone
I wrote this shit for the most beautiful love that I ever known
I was tryna bag you
Sendin' you signals like in your phones
He tryna drag you
Fucked up the feelings, left you alone
But are you braggin'?
You found a nigga you can count on
Yeah, uh
I wonder do your mama remember me
She was talkin' down on me, switchin' your energies
I got you fallin' like when I leave her with synergies

And I might get a little aggressive (Aggresive)
Or I might get a little possessive
But you know I got good intentions
Ooh
And even though you
Play it very cool
I know that you
Yeah (Yeah, oh)

Uh, okay
This not a confession
I'm kinda possessive
Your body impressive
Your time is too precious
I treat it like a diamond and bezel
I'm tryna Patek ya
Ain't tryna let ya out my protection
I'm tryna caress ya
These other niggas tryna correct ya
I'm tryna just let you be you, baby
I promise no pressure
I honor your presence
See you, act like I found me a treasure
And time is of essence
I want you to know mine is invested in our connection
You interestin', I'm interested
I'm not with the flexin'
Especially when you out with your besties
I gotta respect it
I sit my ass down let you check me
It's honestly sexy
You met me I was not what expected
You mine until the end of time of possession

And I might get a little aggressive
Or I might get a little possessive
But you know I got good intentions
Good intentions
And even though you, you play it very cool
I know that you

I know you want it

I wouldn't do the same with them I do to you (I wouldn't)
How come everythin' I tell you end up in the news?
They gon' love you when you're down, then no answer
We gon' keep that between me, God and you
Your temper
There's somethin' missin', baby, couple screws (Couple screws)
The money ain't change a nigga, it's changin' you (Changin' you)
Parties be jumpin', but at the same time
I don't want it if it ain't you
Oh, no
I repeat the same old patterns at night (Ooh)
That one moment that we shared, I want it in rewind (Throw it back for me)
And I might get a little too jealous
But you like when I drink from your water
Makin' me lose my mental when I see you (Psycho)
I never learn from it
I got a little burn from it (Yeah)
I guess this my turn, honey (Oh, yeah-yeah-yeah)

And I might get a little aggressive
Yeah, I might get a little possessive (Baby, baby)
But you know I got good intentions (I got, you and I, I)
And even though you
Play it very cool
I know that you
Oh-oh, oh-oh
Got intentions
