

Say Something

Chris Brown

This shit was all I know
Lovin' the ladies
So many of 'em go
And it's drivin' me crazy
I can work it out
And we pop champagne
Every single night it's the same damn thang
There you go girl, do your thang
Yeah!

I just want you to say something, ladies
Say, say something ladies
Say hey!
I just want you to say something, ladies
Say, say something, ladies
Say hey!
I just want you to say something, ladies
Say, say something, ladies
Say hey!
I just want you to say something, ladies
Say something, ladies
(Yeah yeah yeah yeah)

Damn, the club is full, actin' a fool
I'm wild'n out
Girls on me, I don't even to know
What they're really talkin' 'bout
After the club, find one girl
To bring back to the house
We sweatin', I'm sexin' her
Tongue in her mouth yeah, yeah
She shakes and moans
She holds me close
She takes the most of me
All of me

This shit was all I know
Lovin' the ladies
So many of 'em go
And it's drivin' me crazy
I can work it out
And we pop champagne
Every single night it's the same damn thang
There you go girl, do your thang
Yeah!

I just want you to say something, ladies
Say, say something ladies
Say hey!
I just want you to say something, ladies
Say, say something, ladies
Say hey!
I just want you to say something, ladies
Say, say something, ladies
Say hey!
I just want you to say something, ladies
Say, say something, girl
