

Up 2 You

Chris Brown

Whether help it, and my aim never fails baby
Somebody, somebody tell me,
I don't have a clue what to do when it comes to you
Baby it's so beautiful, every time I see you girl, you throw me out
It's so unusual for me to be waiting
But I don't wanna blow it girl,
But you should know this girl, oh

I'm not gonna be the one to mess this up
Cause I've been left up in love before
I'm not be the one who take the back seat girl
We can take our time and you can try this staying, go out
Anything you want girl, we can go
Girl are we going now? Not, no, no
But from here now, baby I'm gonna leave that up to you
Gonna leave it up to you
