Curtains

Chris Caffery

Curtains, falling, aiming to persuade
Nursing, knowledge, children start to play
Education, wonder, behavior it will change
Learning, patterns, brainwashed to the strange

The objective concerns me
Propaganda and no one gets paid
We can argue ‘til our faces turn blue
But still, the Curtain remains

Curtains, glitter, calling hearts into play
Honest, heroes, worship ‘til your dying day
Patience, virtues, strike up the band
Dance as you pray

The objective concerns me
Propaganda and no one gets paid
We can argue ‘til our faces turn blue
But still, the Curtain remains

Can’t you see the smile in the Curtain has lied
Can you feel the child in the Curtain has died
It’s a never ending road ‘til the rest of the Curtain has fried

Will you ever come out from under your Curtain?
