

I Don't Wanna Live

Chris Cagle

I know you said when I left
I'd regret every word, every breathe, every step, every minute without you
Go do what you have to
I know I said you were wrong I'd move on
It was only a matter of time, til I'd make it without you
But this wasn't about you I said I needed space, a change of place to go out and live my life

I don't wanna live without you anymore
And what I wouldn't give to get us back to the way it was before I admit I was wrong all along now you're gone with all that I'd been living for
I don't wanna live without you, anymore

For a couple of nights I was fine
I was high off the wine and the lights and my new found freedom
, that I thought I needed

But that cold lonely room that I headed home to, it felt like a tomb
I just stared at the ceiling, what an empty feeling
And baby I, apologize, and tell me its not too late

No, I don't wanna live without you, anymore
