

Blessing

Chris Crocker

I still think of you every night
Want ya my side
Til' the morning light
So I close my eyes
And hold you tight
In my dreams
Over and over

We got a thing
Some people search the world for
Why walk away
When my heart is yours
We got a thing some people
Search the whole world for

You're a blessing to me
I still can't believe
All we been through
Waiting on the day
We both say I do

I love you, Justin
And I'll never tell ya different
If anybody says I don't
They're fibbing
You're my beginning
And my ending
You're a blessing

You're a blessing to me
I still can't believe
All we been through
Waiting on the day
We both say I do
You're a blessing to me

Sometimes people try to get
In between you and me
But they're blind
If they can't see
God made you my other half
And I believe that

We got a thing
Some people search this world for

You're a blessing to me
I still can't believe
All we been through
Waiting on the day
We both say I do

I love you, Justin
And I'll never tell ya different
They're fibbing
You're my beginning

And my ending

You're a blessing to me
All we been through
Waiting on the day
We both say I do

Don't go and walk away
Don't turn your head
Just remember
All I've said
I love you
I love you

All we been through

You're a blessing to me
All we been through
Waiting on the day
We both say I do

You're a blessing to me
All we been through
Waiting on the day
We both say I do

You're a blessing
