

Breaking Up

Chris Crocker

You drown in the high
To forget that I'm alive
Then you fall on your knees
When you need my sympathy
And you're drunk and startin fights
'Cause those pretty eyes are blind
You're the song I can't repeat
It's just the same old tired beat yea

I'm getting answers tonight yea yea
I need somebody to hold my hand
I know you're leaving tonight yea yea
I just don't understand

'Cause if we're so in love
Then why we breakin up?
Out heartbeat ain't enough nah ah
If we fight again
It's heartbreak number 10
Will that time be the end? Woh oh
Why we're breaking up?

Go ahead, take it all
Just admit it's all your fault
I'mma sit and watch you burn
'Cause that's the only way you'll learn yea

You bet I'm dancing tonight yea yea
I'm good at holding my own hand
I know you're trippin tonight yea yea
I just don't understand

'Cause if we're so in love
Then why we breakin up?
Out heartbeat ain't enough nah ah
If we fight again
It's heartbreak number 10
Will that time be the end? Woh oh
Why we're breaking up?

I know you've had it hard
It's why you fall apart
I just need to walk away yea
Somehow I've disappeared
I'm lost in all these tears
I just need to walk away

'Cause if we're so in love
Then why we breakin up?
Out heartbeat ain't enough nah ah

'Cause if we're so in love
Then why we breakin up?
Out heartbeat ain't enough nah ah
If we fight again
It's heartbreak number 10
Will that time be the end? Woh oh

Why we're breaking up?
