

Gone

Chris Crocker

We keep going in circles
I know that you know I know
That we can do this no more
'Cause life's been going in slow-mo

I'm over it now
I'm over it now

I'm pouring out my heart
While you don't have a thought
You think I'm crazy but I'm really not
You're acting like a bastard without a heart
You should've known what you had
'Cause now I'm gone
Yeah now I'm gone

We were more like lovers
Closer than any others
But I can't be open no more
You gave me the coldest shoulder

I'm over it now
I'm over it now

I'm pouring out my heart
While you don't have a thought
You think I'm crazy but I'm really not
You're acting like a bastard without a heart
You should've known what you had
'Cause now I'm gone
Yeah now I'm gone

Your love was like a light switch
Flickers in the dark and it
It was on and off
Mixed signals and mixed feelings
Didn't know where to go, and
You were never in love
Your love was on and off so I'm gone

I'm pouring out my heart
While you don't have a thought
You think I'm crazy but I'm really not
You're acting like a bastard without a heart
You should've known what you had
'Cause now I'm gone
Yeah now I'm gone
