

Love Back

Chris Crocker

He still loves his ex and
I've never been good with rejection
I tried to make him love me
But I don't wanna be
Just the next best thing
So I had to see

When you give your all to someone
Who don't want you
You're being willingly
Willingly, willingly a fool
When you give your all to someone
Who loves their last
Well, you can't expect to get that love back
No, you can't expect to get that love back

We were more than friends but
He's never been good with confessions
He tried not to hurt me
But I don't wanna be
Just the next best thing
So I set him free

When you give your all to someone
Who don't want you
You're being willingly
Willingly, willingly a fool
When you give your all to someone
Who loves their last
Well, you can't expect to get that love back
No, you can't expect to get that love back
