

Lucky Tonight

Chris Crocker

It's Chris Crocker.

Have you ever thought about all the things you would do with your friends

If you could get away with anything?

And not get in trouble?

No cops, just you and your friends.

The summer rays are upon us now.

Me and my friends 'bout to paint this town.

Shed the skin, lets get out of here.

Cause who cares what they say

Put your hands up, feel the sun and the rush

No consequences, this is love maybe lust

We are young, but we're not dumb

Lets let this moment take us

We're gettin' lucky tonight

Everybody's chillin' and we're feeling alive

Skinny dipping bitches havin' times of our lives

We'll be takin' pictures just to capture the night

Woah Oh

And then we'll see the sunrise

I'll fall asleep in his arms

We're gettin' lucky tonight

Everybody's chillin' and we're feeling alive

Yeah, We're gettin' lucky tonight

Yeah

We're tryin' hard not to make a sound

Neighbor sleepin' as we're counting down

Friends with benifits and no fears

Let's kiss this night away

Put your hands up, feel the sun and the rush

No consequences, this is love maybe lust

We are young, but we're not dumb

Lets let this moment take us

We're gettin' lucky tonight

Everybody's chillin' and we're feeling alive

Skinny dipping bitches havin' the times of our lives

We'll be takin' pictures just to capture the night

Woah Oh

And then we'll see the sunrise

I'll fall asleep in his arms

We're gettin' lucky tonight

Everybody's chillin' and we're feeling alive

Yeah,

We're gettin' lucky tonight

We're only young once in life

Let's get a little crazy

Lets lose our minds

I said, we're only young once in life

Let's get a little crazy

Lets roll the dice

Roll the dice

We're gettin' lucky tonight
Everybody's chillin' and we're feeling alive
Skinny dipping bitches havin' the times of our lives
We'll be takin' pictures just to capture the night
Woah Oh
And then we'll see the sunrise
I'll fall asleep in his arms
We're gettin' lucky tonight
Everybody's chillin' and we're feeling alive
Yeah
We're gettin' lucky tonight

Yeah
Roll out the dice
Get out your money
And bring the vodka
Cause we're having a party bitch

Who needs to look at the stars when we are stars.
Yeah
We're gettin' lucky tonight
No cops, no consequences,
Just you and your friends

Don't we just all love a stupid summer song.
I know I do. Ha ha.
