

ENEMIES

Chris Grey

Got me at the end of your rope
Pretending we don't know how this goes
Baby, put it all aside till the morning
Then we'll be right back at each other's throats
You can tell me that you hate me after sunrise
But that's not what you say when we're alone
Baby, we don't have to talk about tonight

Love me like we're enemies, recklessly
Till the death of me
I know that we're not meant to be, but I can't seem
To let you leave
Without your clothes falling on my floor, yeah, no one knows
You've been here before
Oh, it's you or me, kill me in my sleep
Love like enemies

You can say what you want to your friends
Long as you end the night in my bed, I
Only see your body in the moonlight
Oh, baby, we both know how this ends
I'm haunting you, you want me to
I'm slipping you the key to my hotel room, oh
Left no trace but your perfume
Nobody knows the things we do, yeah

And at the end of the night, after one hell of a ride
Girl, you can tell me again how I'm the worst
You got your nails digging in, I got your hair in a grip
No, we just can't feel a thing unless it hurts
You can leave, but baby, you already know
This ain't the last time you'll be knocking on my door
Do you hate me or just hate letting me go?

Love me like we're enemies, recklessly
Till the death of me
I know that we're not meant to be, but I can't seem
To let you leave
Without your clothes falling on my floor, yeah, no one knows
You've been here before
Oh, it's you or me, kill me in my sleep
Love like enemies

(Like enemies, love me like
Enemies, enemies, yeah
Like enemies, like enemies
Love like e-, like enemies
Like enemies, love me like
Enemies, enemies, yeah
Like enemies, like enemies
Love like e-, like enemies)
