

FALLING APART

Chris Grey

Lost in my thoughts
Lost in my mind
Lost in the emptiness that you left behind
I'm stuck in my past
Stuck in my ways
Imma stay right here
'Cause I don't like change

So Imma run from my problems
Like I always do
I've been through this before yeah
This ain't nothing new
I've learned all the signs
I don't need another clue

That I'm falling apart
And I know it, yeah I know it, yeah I know that (I know yeah)
My life's a mess
Yeah, I know it, yeah I know it (I know, I know)
They tell me that I'm way too stressed (Yeah)
And I show it, yeah I show it (Bags under my eyes)
Haven't been at my best (No, no)
Yeah, I know it, yeah I know it, yeah I know it, I know it, I do

They don't get it
They don't understand
They don't know what I'm goin' through
No they can't
It's better they don't know
They can't help me anyways
Yeah, I'm terrified of change
I've been tryna move on but I'm stuck again
I feel alone even with my friends
Put on a smile yeah I pretend
I pretend 'cause
I got a lot on my chest
Been pretty hard to suppress
All of the thoughts in my head
In my head

So Imma run from my problems
Like I always do
Been through this before yeah
This ain't nothing new
I've learned all the signs
I don't need another clue

I can tell that I'm falling apart
And I know it, yeah I know it, yeah I know that
My life's a mess (A mess)
Yeah, I know it, yeah I know it (I know, I know)
They tell me that I'm way too stressed (Yeah)
And I show it, yeah I show it (Bags under my eyes)
Haven't been at my best (I haven't)
Yeah, I know it, yeah I know it, yeah I know it, I know it, I do (Yeah)

Yeah, lately I been feeling pretty down

The days go while I sit here and count
I promise Imma turn this shit around, around
Yeah, I've been working hard to change my ways
'Cause every morning I wake up I feel the same
I can't do this shit another fuckin' day

I hate that that I'm falling apart
And I know it, yeah I know it, yeah I know that (Ooh)
My life's a mess
Yeah, I fuckin' know it, yeah I know it (Ooh)
They tell me that I'm way too stressed (Yeah)
And I show it, yeah I show it (Bags under my eyes)
Haven't been at my best (I haven't been at my best)
Yeah, I know it, yeah I know it (My life's a fucking mess)
Yeah, I know it, I know it, I do

Yeah, I know it, yeah
Yeah, I know, I know
Yeah, I know
I know, I know, I know
Yeah, I know
