

Give

Chris Grey

Yeah, oh yeah

You told me that you loved me
I guess you were wrong
And I've been waiting for your love
It's been so long

Yeah, we tried we tried
Yeah, we'd fight we'd fight
We said goodbye goodbye
And now you're here for the night

I've got more to give, yeah, more to give
And you've still got more to take, more to take
And I've still got more to give, more to give
And you've still got more to take, more to take

I knew that we'd end up like this
Sadly I was right
You promised you wouldn't come back
Yeah, you swore on your life

Yeah, we tried we tried
Yeah, we'd fight we'd fight
We said goodbye goodbye
And now you're here for the night

Yeah, I've got more to give, yeah, more to give, yeah
And you've still got more to take, more to take
And I've still got more to give, more to give
And you've still got more to take, more to take, yeah

Whoa
Yeah, I still got more to give yeah
Oh yeah
Whoa
I still
I still got more to give
Yeah, I still whoa

I've got more to give (yeah)
More to give
And you've still got more to take
More to take
And I've still got more to give
More to give
And you've still got more to take (away)
More to take (Yeah away)
