

HAUNTED

Chris Grey

In his voice do I echo?
Send a chill down to your bones
Looking in his eyes seeing my ghost
Baby I know

We said our last goodbyes
But you know that's a lie
Oh you might not be mine

But I'll always be
Watching
Now you're forever
Haunted, oh
Baby I can be your shadow
You'll never have to be alone
Oh my beautiful darling
You're forever haunted, haunted

Ah ah
Ah ah ah
Ah ah oh

Under the touch of a mistake
Stuck on my love got you in chains
I know you're terrified of the mess you've made
Oh I can't move on with life that's without you
I can't die without hearing your "I do"
I'm scared by the lengths I would go
Won't end up alone
I've lost all control

We said our last goodbyes
But you know that's a lie
Oh you might not be mine

But I'll always be
Watching
Now you're forever
Haunted, oh
Baby I can be your shadow
You'll never have to be alone
Oh my beautiful darling
You're forever haunted, haunted

Ah ah
Ah ah ah
Ah ah oh
