

MAKEUP

Chris Grey

Your black dress falls at my door
Take another step you've been here before
I see you to your core
(Nobody get's me like you)

Oh, we're getting close but it ain't close enough
Far from god oh so poisoned by lust
Don't be afraid of what we have become
Down below there's a spot saved for us

You can let your makeup ruin my sheets
You can let your nails dig in to me
It's my reminder of you, reminder of you, ah
Girl, I love the taste of your jealousy
Leave it on my tongue you're my ecstasy
The high reminds me of you, reminds me of you, ah

(It's my reminder of you)
(Yeah yeah)

I feel you when you're gone
Burning on my skin you're the only one that
Can make me feel anything

Oh, we're getting close but it ain't close enough
Far from god oh so poisoned by lust
Don't be afraid of what we have become
Down below there's a spot saved for us

You can let your makeup ruin my sheets
You can let your nails dig in to me
It's my reminder of you, reminder of you, ah (yeah)
Girl, I love the taste of your jealousy
Leave it on my tongue you're my ecstasy
The high reminds me of you, reminds me of you, ah

(You can let your makeup ruin my sheets)
(You can let your nails dig in to me)
