

MY EVERYTHING

Chris Grey

Passin' the time
Awake, counting the miles
This bed don't feel like mine
Without you by my side

Oh baby, I can't fight these feelings every time that I'm alone
Arms out, oh, I'm reachin' for a love that feels like home
Oceans in between us, but my heart can't let you go
Oh, oh

Oh, you're my everythin'
Never knew that lovin' somebody could feel like this
Like nothing ever mattered 'til I felt your lips
Got me all, all in
You're everything, everything else just fades away
I can see it all so clearly when we're face to face
Baby, nothing ever mattered 'til you called my name
Now there's no escape
You're everything, you're everything

We're almost there
I know these nights are hard to bear
Oh, this life just isn't fair
I still feel you everywhere (Ooh)

Oh, baby, I can't fight these feelings, oh, they're knocking down my door
Arms out, oh, I'm reachin', I just need a little more
Oceans in between us, but I promise I'm still yours
Oh

Oh, you're my everything
Never knew that lovin' somebody could feel like this
Like nothing ever mattered 'til I felt your lips
Got me all, all in
You're everything, everything else just fades away
I can see it all so clearly when we're face-to-face
Baby, nothin' ever mattered 'til you called my name
Now, there's no escape (No escape)
You're everything, you're everything

Everything

Oh, you're my everything
Never knew that lovin' somebody could feel like this
Like nothing ever mattered 'til I felt your lips
Got me all, all in
You're everything you're everything
