

PARADISE

Chris Grey

Our love will be reborn

I've been losing faith
Now I'm washed up ashore in the waves
In the dark, oh, your voice leads the way
It's too late for my soul to be saved
How I should've known
It's a story already been told
Know my fate, I won't make it back home
Now I'm lost in this world all alone

I'm falling from paradise, oh
I feel heaven grow further from my eyes, my eyes
Got a taste of the divine, on my mind
Every night, I've been tryna find paradise, my paradise

Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Yeah

I'm lost in a world, so wicked and cruel
The only love remains from the life we once knew
We make Heaven of Hell, Hell of Heaven too
I find paradise, wherever I find you
