

POURING

Chris Grey

I'm hearing your echo
Whispers calling my name
In shadows I see your face
(Yeah, yeah)
When we're not together
My mind won't pull me away
I know you feel the same

And girl, it's dangerous
Waiting
For someone to let go
The feelings they aren't fading
We're facing
Into the unknown

Every single night
You've been on my mind
Let the rain fall
'Til it's pouring, pouring
Wasted all our time
Trying to deny
All the rain fall
It's pouring, pouring

It's always been you
But now it's hard to ignore
In the eye of the storm, yeah yeah
When we touch feel lightning strike
It ain't love inside your eyes
When you ride

And girl it's dangerous
Waiting
For someone to let go
The feelings they aren't fading
We're facing
Into the unknown

Every single night
You've been on my mind
Let the rain fall
'Til it's pouring, pouring (yeah)
Wasted all our time (our time)
Trying to deny
All the rain fall
It's pouring, pouring

Pouring
Pouring rain
Pouring (oh no)
Pouring rain

There's a dark sky
And it's headed our way
In the ocean
I can feel all the waves
Yeah, it's hopeless

To try and stop the rain, yeah
Just let it fall on you, babe

Every single night
You've been on my mind
Let the rain fall
'Til it's pouring, pouring
Wasted all our time
Trying to deny
All the rain fall
It's pouring, pouring

Pouring
Pouring rain
Pouring (oh no)
Pouring rain

(Pouring)
(Pouring, yeah)
