

PRADA & VERSACE

Chris Grey

I see you across the room you caught my eye
Black dress right up to your thigh
You got everything that I like
Dancing on top the tables like a pro
Red lips, Marilyn Monroe
You're somebody I wanna get to know

Baby, can you talk with your body
Tell me all the ways that you want me
You don't need your lips so put 'em on me
Underneath this Prada and Versace
Promise baby I won't touch you softly
Good girl, good at being naughty
You don't need your lips so put 'em on me
Underneath this Prada and Versace

Baby, I can take you anywhere you choose
Fuck in front a million dollar view
Just know that this shit ain't nothin' new
Your black lace shows underneath
Red bottoms on your feet
Your eyes lookin' up at me
You don't need to say what you need

Baby, can you talk with your body
Tell me all the ways that you want me
You don't need your lips so put 'em on me
Underneath this Prada and Versace
Promise baby I won't touch you softly
Good girl, good at being naughty
You don't need your lips so put 'em on me
Underneath this Prada and Versace

I just wanna hear that body talk and say my name
I'll never be the one to love you but I'll fuck you just the same
Covered in Versace girl your lipstick left a stain
Oh, I love your aftertaste
