

Dogs Love Christmas Too

Chris Isaak

Dogs love Christmas too, just like me and you
No, they don't go shopping or hang up a stocking
But there's lots of things they do

Out in Christmas Park, they all run and bark
'Cause they can hear a sleigh half a mile away
And dogs love Christmas too

When they hear old Santa coming, all their tails will wag
'Cause he always brings them doggy treats in his Christmas bag

They all clap their paws, when they see Santa Claus
Oh, they just can't hide it, when a puppy gets excited
Dogs love Christmas too

Santa said, "Have you been good (Uh-huh)
And have you done what good dogs should? (Of course)
For boys and girls depend on you
To be a trusted friend who always will be true" (That's me)

Dogs love Christmas too, just like me and you
No, they don't go shopping or hang up a stocking
But there's lots of things they do

Then one fuzzy pup clearly spoke and stepped right up
It was Christmas Day, but there was something he had to say
He said, "Ahem, eh-hur-reh-ruh-ruff-ruh-reh"
Translation, "Dogs love Christmas too"
