

Wait

Chris Jamison

We met way back when we were in junior high
Gave her my heart before I could even decide
I learned what love was staring into her eyes
Harder to breathe for the first time

I just wanna wait, wait for a minute
Just wait, wait for a minute now
Her eyes staring back at me
Are my perfect remedy, wait
Times, times that you feel alone
She's all that I wanna know
Wishing I could relive memories
I'm chasing time, oh wait for me
Baby just wait (wait, wait, wait)
Oh just wait (wait, wait, wait)

We drive that highway, see a smile on her smile on her face
No conversation, our hands fall into place
Feet up in the passenger seat, I'm wide awake watching her fall asleep, and
We take our time just driving slow as we can

Wait for a minute
Just wait, wait for a minute now
Her eyes staring back at me
Are my perfect remedy, wait
Times, times that you feel alone
She's all that I wanna know
Wishing I could relive memories
I'm chasing time, oh wait for me

(Wait, wait) moving at the speed of light
(Wait, wait, wait) I can't let go, it feels so right, I got no
(Wait, wait) tell me something we control so I'll stay
Keep every memory made

I just wanna wait, wait for a minute
Oh, her eyes, I, I, I just wanna wait
Wait for a minute, just wait
Wait for a minute now
Her eyes staring back at me
Oh my perfect remedy, wait
Times, times that you feel alone
She's all that I wanna know
Wishing I could relive memories
I'm chasing time, oh, wait for me
Baby just wait (wait, wait, wait)
All I really wanna do (wait, wait, wait)
