

Everybody

Chris Janson

Everybody wanna get rich, but nobody wants to work
Everybody wants to fall in love, but nobody wants to get hurt
Nobody wants to punch that clock, but everybody wants to get paid
Nobody wants to make love no more, everybody just wanna get laid
(Hey!)

Everybody wanna be famous, everybody wants to be a superstar
Everybody wants to know what it's like to go drivin' in a real fast car
Everybody wants to be Hollywood, everybody wants to shine
Well I don't really care what everybody does, baby I just wanna make you mine

Everybody wants to be history, but nobody wants to make it
Everybody wants to be in the picture, but nobody wants to take it
Everybody wants to change the world, but nobody wants to change their mind
And everybody got a good reason baby, but nobody got a good rhyme
(Hey!)

Everybody wanna be famous, everybody wants to be a superstar
Everybody wants to know what it's like to go drivin' in a real fast car
Everybody wants to be Hollywood, everybody wants to shine
Well I don't really care what everybody does, baby I just wanna make you mine

Everybody's overthinkin' it, and everything's fallin' apart
Meanwhile Bruce is bringin' it, and we're Dancin' In The Dark
(That's right)

Everybody wanna be famous, everybody wants to be a superstar
Everybody wants to know what it's like to go drivin' in a real fast car
Everybody wants to be Hollywood, everybody wants to shine
Well I don't really care what everybody does, baby I just wanna make you mine
Yeah I just wanna make you mine
