

Halfway To Crazy

Chris Janson

It's twelve o'clock
Made a little stop at the One-Stop
Slapped a bag of ice on the blacktop
Threw it in a cooler full of twist tops
Stepped on a pedal in my flip-flop
Good time waiting on me at the county line
Four hundred horses running 95
Today we ain't waiting on a night
No sir, that's right

We'll be halfway to crazy when the moon comes out
Ain't waiting on the sun to go down
We'll be making them speakers start shaking when we turn 'em up loud
We'll be down by the creek
Yeah, making them cold beers spring a leak
We gonna hit us a rowdy streak
Got the paycheck money, been waiting all week
All the country boys and the country ladies
All the way gone, halfway to crazy, woo

Tan legs swinging off the back of a tailgate
Reeling me in like a crank bait
Making them stars wanna shine in the middle of the day, hey, hey

We'll be halfway to crazy when the moon comes out
Ain't waiting on the sun to go down
We'll be making them speakers start shaking when we turn 'em up loud
We'll be down by the creek
Yeah, making them cold beers spring a leak
We gonna hit us a rowdy streak
Got the paycheck money, been waiting all week
All the country boys and the country ladies
All the way gone, halfway to crazy

Smoke rings coming off a cut down oak tree
Out in the middle of the country
You can bet your bottom dollar that's right where we're gonna be

We'll be halfway to crazy when the moon comes out
Ain't waiting on the sun to go down
We'll be making them speakers start shaking when we turn 'em up loud
We'll be down by the creek
Yeah, making them cold beers spring a leak
We gonna hit us a rowdy streak
Got the paycheck money, been waiting all week
All the country boys and the country ladies
All the way gone, halfway to crazy
All the way gone, halfway to crazy
All the way gone, halfway to crazy, woo
Alright
